Important Notice from Princeton University About
Your Prescription Drug Coverage and Medicare

Please read this notice carefully and keep it with your other important papers. This notice has information about your current prescription drug coverage with Princeton University and about your options under Medicare’s prescription drug coverage. This information can help you decide whether or not you want to join a Medicare drug plan. If you are considering joining, you should compare your current coverage, with the coverage and costs of the plans offering Medicare prescription drug coverage in your area. Information about where you can get help to make decisions about your prescription drug coverage is at the end of this notice.

There are two important things you need to know about your current coverage and Medicare’s prescription drug coverage:

1. Medicare prescription drug coverage became available in 2006 to everyone with Medicare. You can get this coverage if you join a Medicare prescription drug plan or join a Medicare Advantage Plan (like an HMO or PPO) that offers prescription drug coverage. All Medicare prescription drug plans provide at least a standard level of coverage set by Medicare. Some plans may also offer more coverage for a higher monthly premium.

2. Princeton University has determined that the prescription drug coverage offered is, on average for all plan participants, expected to pay out as much as the standard Medicare prescription drug coverage will pay and is therefore considered Creditable Coverage.
Because your existing coverage is Creditable Coverage, you can keep this coverage and not pay a higher premium (a penalty) if you later decide to join a Medicare drug plan.

When Can you Join a Medicare Drug Plan?
You can join a Medicare drug plan when you first become eligible for Medicare and each year from October 15th through December 7th. You should compare your current coverage, including which drugs are covered, with the coverage and cost of the plans offering Medicare prescription drug coverage in your area.

However, if you lose your current creditable prescription drug coverage, through no fault of your own, you will be eligible for a two (2) month Special Enrollment Period (SEP) to join a Medicare Part D drug plan.

What Happens to your Current Coverage if you Decide to Join a Medicare Drug Plan?
If you decide to join a Medicare drug plan, your Princeton University coverage will not be affected.
As a benefits-eligible employee you and your eligible dependents can keep your prescription plan coverage if you elect Medicare Part D and this plan will coordinate with the Part D coverage.

Please remember that your prescription drug plan through Princeton University is part of your medical plan coverage. If you decide to enroll in a Medicare prescription drug plan and request to drop your Princeton University prescription drug coverage, be aware that you may also be dropping your medical plan coverage. If you do drop your medical and prescription plan coverage, you are your dependents will be able to re-enroll in a Princeton University medical plan at a later date.

Please contact us for more information about what happens to your coverage if you enroll in a Medicare prescription drug plan.

When Will you Pay a Higher Premium (Penalty) to Join a Medicare Drug Plan?
You should also know that if you drop or lose your coverage with Princeton University and don’t join a Medicare drug plan within 63 continuous days after your current coverage ends, you may pay a higher premium (a penalty) to join a Medicare drug plan later.

If you go 63 continuous days or longer without creditable prescription drug coverage, your monthly premium may go up at least 1% of the Medicare base beneficiary premium per month for every month that you did not have that coverage. For example, if you go nineteen months without creditable coverage, your premium may consistently be at least 19% higher than the Medicare base beneficiary premium. You may have to pay this higher premium (a penalty) as long as you have Medicare prescription drug coverage. In addition, you may have to wait until the following October to join.

NOTE: You will receive this notice each year. You will also get it before the next period you can join a Medicare drug plan, and if Princeton University changes its prescription drug plan coverage. You also may request a copy of this notice at any time.
