Reflecting on the resilience and/or vulnerability that these challenging times have revealed, describe what you have discovered about yourself, your family and friends, and/or your community.

Word count: 750-1,250 words