Having a will is important no matter the size of your estate. A will ensures that your intentions will be honored in the event of your death, including your wishes about who will inherit your property, serve as guardian of your children, and manage your estate. Without a will, those decisions may be left to others.

AN EASY AND EMPOWERING SOLUTION

As an employee with a Group Life insurance policy from The Hartford, you have access to EstateGuidance® Will Services provided by ComPsych®. This free service helps you create a simple, legally binding will online, saving you the time and expense of a private legal consultation. Other advantages include:

- Online assistance from licensed attorneys should you have questions
- Unlimited revisions at no additional charge
- Additional estate planning services are also available for purchase, including the creating of a living will or a final arrangements document that allows you to specify burial or cremation preferences; funeral or memorial services options

QUICK ANSWERS TO KEY QUESTIONS

Isn’t will preparation complicated?
Not with EstateGuidance®. You’ll be asked a series of questions online that are used to compose your will. In many states, you need only add your signature to make the will valid.

What if I have questions as I’m creating my will?
The online education center provides answers regarding family law. You can also access fully licensed attorneys who’ll respond to you online.

What about my privacy?
All information is kept secure and confidential with the latest encryption technology.²

What happens if I don’t create a will?
The state, not you, would decide how your property is distributed. By drafting a will, you can protect your interests and those of your loved ones.
